THE MEASURE OF THE AWFULNESS OF SIN AND OF THE LOVE OF GOD

Sin spoils and still spoils earth, and would spoil Heaven if admitted there. "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son" to die to save sinners from their sins. Are you saved? Or has the sacrifice of Calvary been made of no avail by your rejection or neglect of the Saviour who died for you?

FAREWELLS AND WELCOMES

Greats Much Interest at Vancouver
1st-Brigadier McLean Presides at United Meeting to Greet
Incoming Officers

Three farewells and two welcomes in less than fourteen days at the Vancouver 1. Corps surely must be some pretty near constituting a record, even in these record-breaking days.

First in order we had Staff-Captain and Mrs. George Smith, who, for four years, have done good work in this Division. They led the meetings all day Sunday, July 21st. The Staff-Captain was in good form and his talks were greatly appreciated.

The following Sunday (July 22nd) Commandant and Mrs. Jaynes farewelled after being nearly three years in command of the Corps. During those three years the Commandant has been out in amongst us, his sunny smile doing much to cheer and cheer, strengthen and console us. Whilst Mrs. Jaynes' attitude and bearing seemed always to be a living exposition of the word "gentleness and confidence shall be your strength."

The afternoon meeting was handed over to Commandant and Mrs. Bristow, who farewelled and have left this Division. The Commandant's ray smile and Mrs. Bristow's winning eloquence will be missed. No. 1, where they were frequent and always welcome visitors.

On the following Monday a United Front-line Soldiers' Meeting, over by Brigadier and Mrs. McLean, was held, when each of the Officers leaving the city gave short addresses. Staff-Captain and Mrs. St. James, who are going to Alberta; Commandant and Mrs. Jaynes, to Victoria, and Commandant and Mrs. Bristow, to Winnipeg, were by the first. The latter, assured that their stay on the coast had been profitable, and that they carried them the good wishes of their comrades in their appointments.

On Friday, Aug. 2nd, Brigadier and Mrs. McLean again presided over a united meeting, but this time it took the form of a hearty welcome to Commandant and Mrs. J. Habkirk, who have come to take the position vacated by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Smith; and also to our new Corps' Officers, Adjutant and Mrs. Weir.

After different speakers, representing the various sections of Soldiers, had assured the incoming Officers of loyal and hearty support in the work that lies before them, the Officers concerned each gave addresses which created a very favourable impression; this part of the evening, being interpreted by music and song led by Commandant Habkirk. Brigadier McLean finished up by saying that he personally was very glad to welcome the new Officers, and he felt sure that as in other parts of Canada, they would be able to co-operate in the good work of The Salvation Army. FOUR SOULS SEEK PARDON

At Tweed on Sunday, Aug. 11th, four sought pardon for their sins and found victory through the blood. These were the farewells our Captain S. C. Harrison, who we regret to lose. God bless him in his new field of labour.

On Tuesday at our prayer meeting one sister was enrolled as a Soldier of the Cross. Then about forty comrades and friends sat down to a farewell feast.

VISITING COMRADES

Take Active Part in Week-end
Meetings at Lethbridge

God is with us at Lethbridge and we have seasons of spiritual blessings in all meetings. On Sunday, Aug. 4th, thirty-six comrades were in the march. The afternoon meeting was led by Sergeant-Major Tullack and visiting Soldiers from Calgary, Great Falls, U.S., and Saskatoon. The jail service was conducted by Adjutant Hamilton, assisted by Sister Roberts (Calgary).

Crowds were attracted to the City and at night by the march of fifty comrades. The Salvation meeting was led by Adjutant and Mrs. Hamilton, assisted by Brother and Sister Wallace and daughter (Saskatoon).

The following Sunday (July 22nd) Commandant and Mrs. Jaynes farewelled after being nearly three years in command of the Corps. During those three years the Commandant has been out in amongst us, his sunny smile doing much to cheer and cheer, strengthen and console us. Whilst Mrs. Jaynes' attitude and bearing seemed always to be a living exposition of the word "gentleness and confidence shall be your strength."

The afternoon meeting was handed over to Commandant and Mrs. Bristow, who farewelled and have left this Division. The Commandant's ray smile and Mrs. Bristow's winning eloquence will be missed. No. 1, where they were frequent and always welcome visitors.

GOT FIRST PRIZE

For the Best-kept Tent in Camp

We have welcomed our new Officers, Captain Coway and Lieutenant Hussey, at Hamilton IV. We pray that their stay may be long with us. The Life-Saving Guards have arrived home from Camp after two weeks there. They enjoyed every minute of it. The Hamilton IV. Sisters received first prize for their tent, a Petrol Leader Barlow worked hard, along with her Guards. On the Sunday night forty Guards gave themselves afresh to God.

The Guards of Hamilton IV, Corps, through "The War Cry," wish to thank Ensign Mapp for the way she helped them to enjoy camp life—Instructor Peebles.

FORT FRANCIS

After farewelling Captain and Mrs. Norberg and little one, we had the pleasure of welcoming Captain E. Sinclair, who has come all the way from Medicine Hat. Already we have had two Sundays with him and last Sunday we had two souls at the Mercy Seat.—M. B.

WYCHWOOD L.S. GUARDS

Render Mutual Programme to the Soldier, Boys and Distribute Fruit and Flowers at Devilville Hospital

The Life-Saving Guards of Wychwood, with Guard Leader Sibley and Chaplain Cook, accompanied by the Corps' Officers, Ensign and Mrs. Snowden, visited the Devilville Hospital on Saturday afternoon and rendered a helpful programme of songs, musical duties, recitations, etc., in the various wards; also distributed fruit, flowers, and chocolate to the returned men. The nursing staff and men were most appreciative and enjoyed the helpful talks of Ensign and Mrs. Snowden.

The week-end meetings were much blessed and owned by God, particularly the Holiness Service, when Ensign Snowden gave a helpful address. Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Smeeton took part in this service. Two red-hot open-air meetings were conducted in the afternoon by Corps Sergeant-Major Goodenough and Young People's Sergeant-Major Dean.

At night quite a stir was made when the open-air was announced by breaking up into parties and bombarding the street. Inside we had the joy of seeing two backsliders return to God.

PICTOU COUNTY CORPS

A budget of news concerning the Pictou County Corps is contained in a rhyming report which has reached us from Correspondent W. R. Kellock, of Stellarton. We regret we have not space to print it in full.

Ensign and Mrs. Laing have had a good start at New Glasgow, and their music and singing are attracting attention. Ensign Mercer (from London) and Lieutenant Frost have been welcomed to Westville.

Captain Hickling and Lieutenant Richardson are making a drive on the devil and sin at Trenton. In Pictou Town, Lieutenant Bowring, "the feet of Salvation," is now at the helm, while Lieutenant Robinson at Stellarton "into the conflict of the Lord with might and main do go." God bless them all!

Brigadier and Mrs. Adby conducted the morning meeting at West Toronto on Sunday, Aug. 18th. At night the Brigadier was at Light Street, and one soul sought the Saviour.

GOOD TIMES AT GODERICH

Visit of Young People's Sergeant-
Dean Created Much Interest

We have been having good meetings at Goderich since July 1st. The week-end of the 7th and 14th we had with us Young People's Sergeant-Major Dean and his family of Wychwood. The Sergeant-Major is a real "live wire" and gave us some very helpful talks. In the Holiness meeting one backslider came back to God, and is still giving high testimony.

We had a special meeting on Friday, 12th, in which Brother Ensign gave a brief account of his life, which proved very interesting to the 120 persons present; he having been in the stage of Lethbridge during the Boer war, in perils on land and sea. The sign-borders, which could be seen at different street corners, were very much popular with the men on the firing line.

Colonel Gifford and Brigadier Andrews are arranging for the opening of the new Hartford Division Headquarters early in October. The Commander has consented to undertake the opening ceremony, which Headquarters will be one of the finest Divisional Properties in the country.

Hut at Camp Grant

Commissioner Estill recently dedicated an Army Hut at Camp Grant, Illinois. The occasion was graced by Major-General Macdonald, in command of over 50,000 troops located here, and his immediate staff. The Commissioner gave a forceful address, telling of the work done here and abroad among the troops of the allied nations. In conclusion he dedicated the building to the service of United Nations.

The Army Hut at Camp Lister, Washington, was opened recently by Governor Lister. Lieutenant-Colonel Scott gave a brief review of the war activities of The Salvation Army and referred to the building—its objects and facilities.

Lieutenant-Colonel Bovill reports good progress on the financial campaign on behalf of the Brooklyn Nursery and Children's Hospital. The target of $35,000 has been almost reached, and the Colonel is confidently expecting the full total.

The Hospital has, through the campaign, received a great deal of useful advertising, so that an unprecedented number of visitors have come to the Hospital during the last few days. Most of these visitors have expressed themselves as perfectly amazed that such a splendid institution has existed in the city without their having known it. The city authorities, after having examined very minutely every detail of the Home, have highly commended it. The Salvation Army and have rated the institution as A1.

A big outing for fifteen hundred poor mothers and children was recently arranged by Brigadier and Mrs. Exort of Baltimore. A steamer was chartered to run to Talbot Beach, and the outing was a great success.

Brigadier Stillwell and her assistants are busy at Glades Edge with the poor people who go there week by week. During the second week of August fifty women, over sixty years of age, were taken to the camp.

Portage La Prairie

The week-end meetings at Portage La Prairie of August 10th-11th, were splendid. The Salvation Army open-air were held, and many people who came in from the districts appreciated the singing and speaking. Sunday was good. At 11 a.m. at the Provincial Jail still the singing of the Army Doxology took place in the evening, a wonderful sign of power was present, and a host of one soul came forward and afterwards testified to accepting Jesus as his Saviour. Hallelujah!—B. B.

SPECIAL VISITS STETTLER

On Sunday, Aug. 11th, we were pleased to have Captain T. M. Stettler, who is busy at Glades Edge with the poor people who go there week by week. During the second week of August fifty women, over sixty years of age, were taken to the camp.

Commissioner Estill recently visited New York in order to confer with Commander E. A. Booth on certain important details with reference to the War Work. The Commissioner brought favourable reports concerning the War Service Fund campaign in Chicago. A very influential committee has been organized and the men and women composing it are working hard to reach the target set. It is most hopeful of a splendid total.

Colonels Peart and Damon recently visited Washington on behalf of Salvation Army War Service matters.

A long interview was had with Mr. Raymond Fossick, who has just returned from the French front and who expressed his personal gratification at the work which our people are doing. He said that The Salvation Army had made a splendid impression among the American troops and from his own observations knew that it was most popular with the men on the firing line.

LOST ALL BY FIRE

Salvationist Returned Soldier Has to Make Another New Start

To have lost everything they have to the clothes on their backs, was the misfortune of Corporal William Hodson, who recently returned home after three years' service overseas with the C.A.S.C. and his wife and five children, when the old hotel at Port Union, where they had rented for the purpose of chicken-raising, was gutted by fire recently.

They had sold their little home at Avenue Road, Toronto, in order to get into the country, as the father and twelve-year-old boy were very frail. Every cent, with the exception of about $25, was invested in the new venture, and even this was lost in the fire.

Some forty-five chickens were purchased as a start, and it was intended to increase this number week by week, but early on the Sunday morning the family was awakened by the engine of a passenger train, who noticed smoke issuing from the house. Corporal and Mrs. Hodson, with their children, fled to the children's safety out of the burning building, but with the exception of a bureau, nothing else was saved. Linen and clothing valued at $300, were destroyed.

It is supposed that chicken thieves caused the fire, because of the fact that of the forty-five chickens in the coops the carcasses of only five could be found after the fire.

The Corporal and Mrs. Hodson are Salvationists, having belonged to the Riverdale Corps before moving out to Port Union. We are sure that their loss will not hinder our comrade made known his case to Brigadier Fraser, it was found possible to fit him and his family out with clothing and a new piece of furniture from the Toronto Industrial Store. A neighbour (Mrs. Patterson) is giving them the use of her room, and they are now busy making another start. The occurrence is all the more regrettable because Brother Hodson is very kind, hardworking, and a true Christianism which prevents his doing hard or continuous work.

On Wednesday, Aug. 7th, we welcomed Ensign and Mrs. Junker, and are believing for much good to be done while they are stationed at St. James Corps—S. J. L.

The Home League has knitted and sent into the front-line hospitals, during the last month, twenty pairs of socks and a scarf for the soldier lads. God bless and keep our boys at the front!

Wychwood Home League is increasing in numbers, and plans are being made to send all our boys overseas boxes for Christmas. Mrs. Ensign Snowden is taking a personal interest in this work and her efforts are already bearing fruit.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Comfort in Bereavement

THE announcement that Canada's list of dead in the war has reached a total of 50,000, and the casualty lists that are now coming through, are reminders that there must be in our midst very many stricken hearts who are in need of the tender ministrations love can give.

In the hope that it may help some sorrow-laden soul to look beyond the present parting, and the overwhelming sense of loss which afflicts them, to a future reunion, as well as to the immediate consolation in realization of the love and providence of God, we reprint on page two of this issue a letter from the pen of The Army's Founder.

It will add value to the cup of comfort which is offered to remember that the writer had himself suffered bereavement by the death of his nearest and best-beloved.

Sit Up the Public

THE anniversary of the adoption of Prohibition in Ontario will be a suitable occasion for a review of the position in this respect. We believe the Corps can do much by expressions of opinion from people in their towns who are best qualified to speak as to the benefits of the cessation of the Drink Traffic and to expect to be able to pass on to our readers an array of testimony from all classes.

Here we would make a suggestion. It is well known that Prohibition is at present a war measure and that sooner or later it will come up for review. In order that it may be confirmed and continue in force it is necessary that public interest in the question should be kept alive. Many interested forces are working for a reversal of the policy of a "dry" Dominion; the only hope of their succeeding lies in the possibility of the people being lulled into a feeling of security which will make them so apathetic towards the question that they will not see any opportunity in which the master's interests can be advanced; they must make the best of such opportunity for us, or if they see any conduct or circumstances which are injurious to him, they should at once endeavour to remedy the evil.

Duty on Both Sides

THE following extracts from these Orders are typical. In the section for the employer, it is said: "Must seek the welfare of their masters in every way that is right and reasonable. They must not be content with merely performing their own duties; they must see any opportunity in which the master's interests can be advanced; they must make the best of such opportunity for us, or if they see any conduct or circumstances which are injurious to him, they should at once endeavour to remedy the evil."

Drink Remembrance Sunday

ONE of the best ways, it seems to us, to prevent this is to keep in the public mind, at any rate until after it is past, a lively sense of the evils of Strong Drink. To help towards this end we would suggest that the coming anniversary should be marked by a "Drink Remembrance Sunday" at every Corps in Ontario, and in the other Provinces and similar anniversary, such as "Remembrance Days" to be merged into one when Prohibition becomes effective throughout the Dominion.

Life-Saving Scouts and Guards

At Canada East and West, Every Summer Camp, Scout, John and

Week-end, with Many Seeking Forgiveness

"O, my heart loves me and I know it
When the summer days are long
CAMP KEEPSWEET has once more both the scene of life, joy, and service, and the life of the Scouts and Guards who privilege it was to spend ten days in camp there are likely back home again, tanned and toned-up by their days of toil and pleasure at this much-loved spot.

The Life-Saving Scouts left St. John on a foggy Saturday morning, July 27th, and arrived in Digby in the sunshine, where a very fine week-end was spent. On Saturday night the Scouts gave a programme of music, etc., and a good time of it was had. The Band played splendidly and the different items went with a bang!

Sunday all day the boys toiled hard. The morning meeting was held in the Citadel—afternoon and night in the theatre. Crowds were splendid and when Sunday night came all felt they had had a good day.

Monday morning saw us off to Camp, six miles in the country, and where we were joined by the Yarmouth Troop, which at this point, along with the St. John Troop, lost its identity, as from now till Camp it was only one "Troop." The "Keepsweet Troop"—Yarmouth and St. John being names not allowed, when applied to Scouts in Camp.

Well, we certainly had a great time. The conduct of the boys was splendid, perfect harmony prevailed, there was no sickness, no accidents, and lots to eat.

When we come to the spiritual side of affairs this was the banner year for Keepsweet. Ask Esquire Condie about that camp fire gathering on the Tuesday night, when a dozen of the boys sought the Saviour. How wonderfully God came into our midst—how greatly they upon were the boys. Our new church figured much in the life of the Scouts and Guards who privilege it was to spend ten days in camp there are likely back home again, tanned and toned-up by their days of toil and pleasure at this much-loved spot.

REGINA AND WINNIPEG TROOPS HAVE SPLENDID TIME

THE Life-Saving Scouts attached to Regina Corps are known as the "Capital City Troop," Canada West, No. 10. The Troop has a membership of thirty-five in charge of Scout Leader A. H. Smith and Assistant Leaders George Hobson and V. Roberts, also Instructor J. W. Diamond. The Troop has only been organized some fifteen months.

Its first Summer Camp was held from August 3rd to 10th last, at Saskatchewan Beach, a superb resort about thirty-five miles from Regina. Considerable preparation was necessary, and tents, cooking utensils, etc., were at first loaned by various friends, and an excited crowd of boys gathered at the station on Saturday, August 3rd. Twenty of the boys were able to go with us. The weather was certainly very encouraging for a start.

SONGS OF SALVATION

HIS BOUNDLESS LOVE
Tune—Take Salvation, 170; Blessed Lord, 363.

Boundless as the mighty ocean,
Rolling on from pole to pole,
Is the boundless love of Jesus

Boundless mercy,
Making guilty sinners whole.

Boundless as the starry heavens,
Filled with fiery orbs of light,
Are the promises of Jesus

For the soul in nature's night:
Ever shining,
Till our faith is changed to sight.

Boundless as eternal ages,
As the air we breathe as free,
Is the boundless, full Salvation

Jesus purchased on the tree—
Boundless cleansing
From all sin's impurity.

A CROSS FOR ALL
Tune—Manchester, 47; I am clinging

Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
And all the world go free?

No, there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me

Chorus
I am clinging to the cross!

The consecrated cross I'll wear
Till death shall set me free;

And then go home my crown to
For there's a crown for me [wear,

Upon the crystal pavement, down
As Jesus' pierced feet,

Joyful I'll cast my golden crown,
And I'll dear name repeat.

O precious cross! O glorious crown!
O resurrection day!

Ye angels, from the heavens come,
And bear my soul away. [down,

HE WAS FOUND WORTHY
Tune—He was found worthy, Nat. Music, Vol. 11, No. 23, 100.

When none was found to ransom
He was found worthy! [me,
To set a world of sinners free,
He was found worthy!

CHORUS
Oh, the bleeding Lamb!
He was found worthy!

To take the book and loose the seal,
To bruise the head that bruised
His heel.

To open wide the gates of Heaven;
To Him all majesty is given.

His Blood has washed me white as snow,
And all His fulness I shall know.

A FRIEND IN JESUS
Tune—The Lily of the Valley, 229; Song Book, 229.

I've found a Friend in Jesus,
He's everything to me;
He's the Fairest of ten thousand

The Lily of the Valley, [my soul];
In Him alone I see [fully while;
All I need to cleanse and make me
In sorrow He's my Comfort.

In trouble He's my Stay, [roll,
He tells me every care on Him to

He all my griefs has taken,
And all my sorrows borne;

In temptation He's my Strong and Mighty Tower;

I've all for Him forsaken,
I've all my idols torn,
From my heart, and now He keeps me by His power

Though all the world forsake me,
And Satan tempt me sore,
Through Jesus I shall safely reach the goal.
